FEB2019

Bazaar Night & Market Bag Challenge Kick-off

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2019

7:00 P.M. - ROOM 201

MUSEUM OF ART SCHOOL AT LINEKONA

GUESTS ARE WELCOME - NO ADMISSION

Our February “program” will be an event that was a regular feature of past Guild meetings—a Bazaar Night! In the past, it was bundled together with the make-and-take and white elephant sale. This year, the Bazaar will have its own month. Here’s how it works:

- Each item must be tagged with the seller’s name and the price. This is to prevent one person’s merchandise from wandering into another person’s stash by mistake since we aren’t sure of how much items will be brought in.
- Each seller must cashier their own items and prices are negotiable with the seller
- 15% of sales goes to the Guild. Please pay our treasurer Eileen Roether at the end of the evening.
- If you plan on selling or buying, bring small bills and change. Shopping bags are also a good idea for the buyer and seller.
- Sellers are responsible for taking home their unsold goods. You also have the option of passing it on to Ednah Folk for her school fundraiser.
- Items for sale can be finished items or raw materials
- There will also be a silent auction for a vintage sewing machine and obi fabric

Any questions: please email Aileen at president@hsfag.com

Sue Larson is downsizing before she moves to the mainland so a lot of her supplies will be for sale at the Bazaar. Also for sale will be donated items that will benefit the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund. The bead sale will also be at the Bazaar. Come and join us for a fun evening of hunting and gathering!

Aileen's Message

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

JANUARY 2019 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Aloha, all! I had previously viewed the “Iris” movie at least twice prior to the showing at our January meeting. I must say that I most enjoyed the January showing because of the multiple smiles and laughter from the audience. The big lesson I learned from Iris Apfel is that it is never too late to follow your bliss! Iris is still going strong and a much desired guest speaker. Look for her as a guest judge in this season’s Project Runway Allstars. Thank you, Ednah Folk, for assisting with our technical difficulties. Mahalo also to Aileen Chong and Rendy Chow for sharing their snacks and popcorn with the rest of us. Sue Larson added to the fun with her giveaway of lots of great stuff as she prepares to move. Mahalo, Sue, for all you have done to move the Guild forward. We wish you the best as you move to Florida and continue on with your creative endeavors.

For those of you who want to get an early start on spring cleaning, Ednah Folk will accept any fabric or notions that you no longer want. Bring it to the February meeting for the clothing upcycling project for the Waipahu High School’s Arts and Communication Academy.

See you at the meeting—and don’t forget to bring your tagged merchandise, cash, and shopping bags!

Our Annual Challenge has been chosen!

MARKET BASKET CHALLENGE.....

Our Market Bag Challenge will be launched at our February meeting. There will be 7 or 8 items included with the Market Bag. You will need to include at least 4 items (if there are 7 to start) or 5 (if there are 8 to start). Participants will be told the exact minimum of items to use at the February meeting.

These items must be visibly recognizable in the final creation. There is no limit to how much or how little of the supplied materials you must use. There is also no limit to how much or how little of other “stuff” you use. Other than using the specific number of items which are to be visible and recognizable, your own creativity is your limit.

Participants must be 2019 members of the Guild and submit a refundable $10 “intent to create” fee. It will be refunded when participants submit their finished work at the June meeting/high tea/potluck. The winner of the challenge (selected by secret ballot) will receive $100!

If there are any questions, please contact Eileen Roether: hawaiiane1@hotmail.com
If you cannot attend the February meeting and want to participate, please also let Eileen know by January 21 so that she can set aside a mystery market bag for you.

Payments are to made/mailed to:

*Note: Deadline adjustment from previous emailed notice.

A Special Message from Sue Larson - HSFAG retiring board member. During the course of her tenure she is noted for her excellent planning and leadership skills as both Program and Workshop Chair: “As most of you know, Tom & I will be moving to Florida the end of this month. It is with both anticipation and apprehension that we leave the islands. It has been a great adventure to live here in Hawaii, one I consider blessed to have experienced. I would like to thank all of you for your kindness and acceptance as part of this special group. I will remember you all fondly, and dearly miss the commraderie. What a talented and wonderful Ohana. Mahalo to all - and Aloha Sue” Good luck and best wishes from your friends at HSFAG.
