JANUARY 2017

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 2017 KINI ZAMORA

7:00 p.m. Honolulu Museum of Art School at Linekona. Room 101.....

Hawaii born and raised Project Runway finalist and clothing designer Kini Zamora will be the guest presenter at the January HSFAG meeting. He will talk about his experiences on Project Runway and his current work. Kini's designs have been highly eclectic. He has created high fashion gowns for the red carpet and everyday wear for the local woman who wants to infuse the aloha spirit as well as comfort in what she wears. On Project Runway, he was known for his speed in tailoring immaculately fitting creations whether it was made from denim or soccer balls. Kini will be bringing samples of his work and sketching as time permits.

Aileen's Message

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

aloha

The longer I serve as President, the faster it seems that the years go by. 2016 now seems like a blur. I have asked myself "Where did the month go?" at least twelve times in the past year.

Thank you to each board member that has kept the Guild in motion. Sue Larson has served as our Program and Workshop Chair. That's on top of working full time and attending classes! She will be stepping down as Program Chair but has actually lined up the schedule for most of 2017. This should make it a nice transition for our new Program Chair, Ellen Owens. Thanks so much for volunteering, Ellen! As Workshop Chair, Sue continues to work on the details of the Linda Lee Workshop that is scheduled for June 2017. Eileen Roether has been our treasurer and I can vouch that she has been making sure that every dollar is accountable. Lenora Cossey-Taft has been our Secretary who has been recording the minutes of our board meetings. Our most travelled member, Susan Sagara, took the task of Membership Chair for the first time in 2016. Cynthia Oshiro has kept our public persona visible as our webmaster as well as the point person for our Meet-Up group postings. Finally, there are two very important board members that rarely attend meetings but are essential to our survival. Karen Kuba-Hori is our newsletter editor who has been able to send out our newsletters despite her many commitments (including doing all the flowers for her daughter's wedding) and travel schedule. And, Bonnie Pestana has been securing our meeting rooms for countless years in addition to writing announcements about our meetings for public radio and print publications such as MidWeek. Mahalo nui loa, board members!

For the record, I would also like to report that there was an election of officers at our December holiday party. A change to our bylaws was also put to vote so that the webmaster now has voting powers. As stated at the business part of our holiday party, many of our board member travel or can't make board meetings on a regular basis so there often is no quorum. In case you haven't seen it, our bylaws are posted on our website.

Thank you to the members that made our Holiday Party a most enjoyable event! Sue Larson secured the venue and kept track of those attending. Ednah Folk kept our minds and hands busy with stimulating games, and Cynthia Oshiro provided sweet favors. Another important vote also took place-- the Challenge Item for 2017 is PILLOWS. This is one item that I know anybody—that means YOU--can make so I look forward to many entries next May. I will ask Ellen Owens to write down the specifications for what we will accept as a pillow entry... Now to January...The board has been talking about inviting Project Runway finalist Kini Zamora for years and we have finally been able to schedule him! Kini is probably Hawaii's best known designer who always has multiple projects going at the same time. He is highly skilled but approachable too. We must thank Joy Nagaue for finalizing the arrangements to have Kini speak to us. If you know any Project Runway fans or people who are interested in clothing design, please do bring them along to the January meeting.

See you there!

BEAD SALE!

We have been magnificently blessed! Jenny Asato Tsue has generously made a donation of a LOT of beads so there will be a bead sale at the beginning and end of most meetings. Out of respect for our presenters, the beads will not be for sale during the general meeting. The beads will be sold at 50% off and all proceeds will go to the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund. The accompanying photo shows some of the beautiful beads that will be on sale. If interested, please don't forget to bring cash or your checkbook as there will be no holds.

To all,

Holiday wishes

Love Hsfag
