Aileen's Message

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

Happy Spring, hsfag members.....

While I write this, the April “meeting” hasn’t yet occurred. The Kaleidoscope fashion show will take place at the end of the month on April 29 so photos and comments will be in the June newsletter. Only four days after the fashion show, the much-anticipated Pillow Challenge takes place. Are you ready with your entry? I think this is the most perfect of challenges. Anybody should be able to come up with a pillow whether you knit, crochet, dye, quilt, weave, bead, or paint. Whatever your passion is, it can be put into pillow form! If you’re still waiting for inspiration to strike, check out the pillows on our Pinterest page. The link is on our website.

I highly encourage you to enter a pillow but if you don’t have an entry, please do come to the meeting anyway—with your potluck dish—and enjoy the camaraderie. We also need your unbiased vote! There will also be a drawing of door prizes—(yes, the plants will be back)—and feel free to contribute a door prize if you like.

Please also pass on the information on the June Inspiration Board meeting and Kabuki Jacket workshop to anyone whom you think might be interested in participating. We haven’t had a guest instructor from the mainland in years and Linda Lee is one of the best around. Please check out her website: sewingworkshop.com to get an idea of her unique designs which flatters every woman, no matter what shape or size.

Just as the newsletter deadline approached, I had been informed that the 2017 recipient of the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund has been selected by the UH School of Fashion Design and Merchandising. Congratulations to Danielle Hills-Griep. She will be invited to attend a future meeting where she will be presented with her $800 scholarship.

Hope to see you at the fashion show and the Pillow Challenge!

JUNE 8th to 11th 2017
