Aileen's Message

HSFAG PRESIDENT, AILEEN KANESHIRO

Thank you...

It was back-to-basics night at the September meeting. We used needle and thread and did hand-sewing on fabric! Thanks to Sue Larsen, the sewing was made more interesting since it involved learning to embellish with beads. If you ever planned to decorate a neckline or pocket, the experience was invaluable since the finished embellishment involved a set sequence in order to secure the beads properly.

Our October meetings are always fun since there will be a selection of activities at minimal cost (if any) and you also might be able to find a bargain piece at the White Elephant Sale. Don't forget to bring your contribution—I suggest a bag of “stuff” that's taking up space and no longer holds you fancy. My personal goal is two boxes of “stuff.”

We still need volunteers for Second Saturday! Please do consider volunteering since it is a way of giving back to the community and the work is not at all that complicated. There's also lunch... Please also let me know if you would like to serve on the 2018 board. All positions are up for grabs so please consider this as a way of volunteering and sharing your creative ideas.

See you at the meeting!

Yay, Yayoi!

HSFAG is sponsoring the October 14 family event at HISAM. Here's a photo of the two projects we plan to present: A polka-dot themed project to acknowledge the avant-garde Japanese artist, Yayoi Kusama whose work always incorporates polka dots. The second project will be a pencil topper. If you like to contribute items, here's what we were looking for this year: Turbo tacky glue, googly eyes, bright colored yarn, colored paper (used is OK), new pencils, and spray adhesive. Please don't buy anything--we just what you no longer have a use for. And don't forget to sign up as a volunteer for the prep session or the day of the event!
