OCTOBER 2018 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thank you, Carrie Johnson, for a wonderful beaded necklace program for September. The membership turn-out was great—which tells me that beading programs should be a regular part of our program rotation. I do appreciate that Carrie knows her beading techniques and materials inside out. Don't forget to bring or wear your finished necklace to the October Meeting for show-and-tell!

It's still not too late to volunteer to do a make-and-take project for the October meeting. Contact Ellen Owens if you are interested – ecowens@mcowens.com People often talk about spring cleaning but for guild members, it's fall cleaning time. It's time to walk around your sewing, craft and other areas of your home and declutter by bringing the things you no longer have any use for to the White Elephant Sale. Bring it in a bag or box and take home someone else's donated treasures. Proceeds will benefit the Orpha Herrick Memorial Scholarship Fund. My annual goal is to pack up two boxes of stuff.

Second Saturday is right around the corner! Volunteers are needed to make our guild-sponsored event run smoothly. We always get a lot of positive feedback from the HISAM staff and participants about our projects. This year we will be doing "Flipping Face Books." Should be lots of fun.

“If you can read a recipe, you can read a pattern. If you can drive a car, you can operate a sewing machine. If you can shop, you can SEW.”
